

ALEXANDRA S. WALTERS

Alexandra S. Walters, of Hampstead, NC, died Thursday, November 27, 2003, at her residence. She was born on July 4, 1927, in Wiesbaden, Germany, daughter of the late Alexander Wendroth Sielcken and Ilse Correa Sielcken.

A graduate of Stephens College, Mrs. Walters worked many years for NBC and WOR in New York. She later joined WEST in Easton, PA, where she produced, directed and co-hosted the "Breakfast with the Walters" program. After her career in Radio & TV, she became a real estate broker and worked for Weidel Realty, Flemington, NJ, for seventeen years. Mrs. Walters was an active member of Topsail Presbyterian Church in Hampstead. She was pleased to devote her time to Literacy Tutoring and Meals on Wheels. Mrs. Walters was the Recording Secretary of the Topsail Township Friends Of The Library Board. She was a member of the Hampstead Women's Club, the Hampstead Chorus and enjoyed playing bridge with the Monday Afternoon Bridge Group of Topsail Island. Mrs. Walters was also a lifetime member of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society. Alexandra was a treasured wife, mother, grandmother and sister.

MRS. DOROTHY COX WATKINS

Mrs. Dorothy Cox Watkins, age 76, a resident of Rex Nursing Care Center of Apex, passed away on Thursday, November 27, 2003, at Western Wake Hospital, Cary, NC.

She was born in Wilmington, NC, on February 13, 1927, the daughter of the late Marcellus and Katie Piver Cox. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Harold T. Watkins.

Mrs. Watkins was a longtime member of Calvary Baptist Church. She was a teacher at New Hanover High School for many years, until her retirement. Dorothy was a graduate of U.N.C.W. with a BA degree and a graduate of E.C.U. with a MA degree and a certificate of Advanced Study in English. She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma Int. Society and of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.

Surviving are her two sons, Daniel Baxter Watkins and wife Doris of Miami, FL., and Stephen Grant Watkins and wife Laura of Cary, NC; two grandsons, Ryan Watkins and Matthew Watkins, predeceased by her husband, Norman Lewis who died in 1986 and later married Joe Brinson who also predeceased her. She was preceded in death by her son, Baby Boy Lewis and great-granddaughter, Courtney Craft.

Surviving are devoted children, Leslie Norman Lewis and wife Phyllis of Hartsville, SC, Joyce L. Pope and husband Jerry of Burgaw, Deloris K. Jones and husband Todd of Watha and William Earl Lewis and wife Barbara of Burgaw; loving grandchildren, Charlene Lewis, Heather Lewis, Jay Pope, Sabrina Pope, Shannon M. Craft and husband Jerry, Wesley Lewis and Andrew Lewis; five great-grandchildren; and brother, Larry Earl King and wife Pat of Andrews, SC.

Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m. Monday at Quinn-McGowen Funeral Home, Burgaw Chapel, with The Rev. Larn Underwood officiating.

Burial will follow in Herrings Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Sunday at Quinn-McGowen Funeral Home, Burgaw, and at other times will be at the home of Joyce and Jerry Pope.

Quinn-McGowen Funeral Home, Burgaw.