

Winchester/Correa Wedding

Correa-Winchester Vows to Be Read in New Jersey

In an informal ceremony scheduled this morning in Summit, N.J., Ensign Elizabeth Winchester, Wave, daughter of Mrs. Fitch Allan Winchester of South Pasadena and the late Mr. Winchester, will become the bride of Maj. Henry Alvarez Correa, Army Air Forces, son of Mrs. Enrique Alvarez Correa of New York and Barranquilla, Colombia, and the late Mr. Correa.

Dr. W. A. Darr, former professor of religion at Scripps College, will officiate at the nuptials in the home of Maj. Correa's sister, Mrs. Alexander Sielcken. Ensign Jane Wilson, Wave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Wilson of Pasadena, and Capt. William Crawford, Army Air Forces, will attend the couple.

Ensign Winchester is a graduate of Scripps College. Maj. Correa studied at Eton and was graduated from the Sorbonne in Paris. After a Florida honeymoon, the couple will live in Washington, D.C., where both are stationed.

Valley Parlor Opening Set

Organization meeting for a new parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, probably to be identified as San Fernando Mission Parlor, will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in St. Ferdinand's Parish Hall, San Fernando.

Mrs. M. Labory de Gara, descendant of the Sepulvedas and the Chapmans, resident of the valley and past president of Los Angeles Parlor, is acting as organizer, assisted by Meses. Camille Farnsworth and Ramona Asher of the Ortega and Lopez families.
