

HENRY CORREA

INDIAN RIVER SHORES—Henry Alvarez Correa, 73, a retired corporate president, died Sunday, Feb. 17, at home.

Mr. Correa moved to Indian River County in 1972 from New York City, his birthplace.

Educated in Switzerland and France, Mr. Correa received his bachelor's degree in aviation administration from Parks Air College in St. Louis in 1937. After serving as a major in the Army Air Corps during World War II, he was foreign sales manager for Bendix International for 12 years. Then he spent 25 years as an executive with ACF Industries, a railroad car manufacturing company in New York City, the last 14 years as president.

Clipped By:

camilo

Sun, Jan 26, 2020