

Black, Comte de Germiny.

★
★★

Among those registered at the Hotel Continental are: Mr. R.J. Burton of Detroit, coming from London; Mr. and Mrs. O.D. Wilkinson of Philadelphia, coming from New York; Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Longyear of Los Angeles, coming from Tours.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. de Lima of New York have taken up permanent residence at the Hotel Windsor-Etoile, Paris. Mr. de Lima, now a member of the firm of Graves and Kuznick, Paris, was for many years a vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York and was a prominent figure in Paris during the war. Mrs. de Lima, who before her marriage was Miss Ruby Gurney, is a daughter of the late Colonel Gurney of Boston.

★
★★

At Longchamps, as at all fashionable gatherings, the most elegant lady wears a hat bearing the signature "F. SORBIER," the fashionable modiste at 9 Rue Lafayette, Paris.

—(Communicated).

★
★★

Silver table ware & toilet sets. Attractively mounted porcelains and crystals.

Genuine 18th Century Antiques.

Boin Taburet. 10 Bld. Malesherbes.

—(Communicated.)

★
★★

Mr. Thomas D. Green, of New York, president of the American Hotel Association of the United States and Canada, and Mrs. Green, are in Paris at the Hotel Continental, the guests of Mr. George Barrier, president of the International Hotel Association. Mr. and Mrs. Green will leave for London next Thursday to be the guests of Sir Francis Towle at the Hotel Mayfair. They will sail for America on June 15 on the liner France.

★
★★
"AGNES"

7 Rue Auber, Paris.

Madame HAVET will sell at 50 0/0 under cost, all models of the Summer Collection on Monday 30, and Tuesday 31.

Sales will be for cash only.

—(Communicated).

AMERICANS AT PARIS HOTELS.

Hotel Gaillet, Mrs. D. Green, Guest

Blu-
asti-eam
y in ican
ner-
age.
ken vere
ion.
sub-aley
for ex-
sent

war
pain
the ned dea.
rec-
ants