Miss Sielcken Becomes Bride Of Donald Armin

Miss Ilse Dorothea Sielcken, Summit, N. J., and Donald Blake Armin, Amenia, were married 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the Community church, Summit, N. J. The Rev. Dr. Jacob Trapp officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wendroth Sielcken, 45 Waldron avenue, Summit. Mr. Armin is the son of Mrs. Coral Blake Armin, Amenia, and New York.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's gown of off-white satin, was designed with a petal collar, long sleeves, tight bodice and a full skirt with train. Her fingertip veil was edged in heirloom lace and she carried a cascade type bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Alexandra W. Sielcken was the maid of honor and the Misses Dorothy A. Barlow, New York City, and Cynthia L. Slater, Ardaley-on-Hudson, were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of emerald green velvet with short capes, tight cuffed-bodices and full skirts. Their small hats were of matching fabric. Miss Sielcken's bouquet was an arrangement of hibernian, while the bridesmaids carried bouquets of Croton leaves and yellow aemoline type chrysanthemums, tied with bitter-sweet ribbons.

Mrs. Sielcken chose for her daughter's marriage, a Bois de rose satin gown. Her matching jacket was styled with a portrait collar and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids in a rose shade. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of brown satin-back crepe, trimmed with the reverse side of the material. She wore a spray of yellow orchid orchids.

Vincent W. Potts, Short Hills, N. J., was the best man; Hubert M. Vining, Amenia; Marshall Samille, Rutherford, N. J.; George Brainard, West Orange, N. J., and Peter S. Wainwright, New York, ushered.

After a New York wedding trip, the couple will make their home at Viewpoint school, Amenia.

The bride attended Rumson Country Day school, Rumson; the Carl C. Parish school, Barranquilla, Columbia, S. A.; the Summit High school and was graduated from Viewpoint school, Amenia.

Mr. Armin is an alumnus of Rutgers university and is a member of Zeta Psi fraternity. During World War II he served in the Armed Forces overseas for three years. At present he is athletic instructor and teacher at Viewpoint school, Amenia.
