

S. M. JACKSON JACOBS

S. M. Jackson Jacobs, a retired tobacco merchant and manufacturer of men's clothing, died Saturday at his residence, the Hotel Croydon, 12 East Eighty-sixth St. He was born on July 29, 1860, in a house at Thirty-eighth Street and Fifth Avenue.

Mr. Jacobs was a charter member of the Blizzard Men of 1888, and belonged also to the Fifth Avenue Association, the Tobacco Men's Table and The Lambs. His wife, Luisa, survives.

The New York Times

Published: June 9, 1952

Copyright © The New York Times