

J. M. SENIOR WEDS MISS HENRIQUEZ

Ceremony is Performed at Home of the Bride in New York

In the presence of only a few near relatives, the wedding of Miss Dahlia Henriquez, of New York City, to J. M. Senior, of Martine avenue, this city, took place Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the bride's residence, 117 West Forty-ninth street, by Rev. Dr. Perna Mendez. Following an informal reception, the couple left for a wedding trip of two weeks that will include stays at Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Lakewood. At its conclusion they will make their home in this city at 124 Madison avenue, where a completely furnished apartment awaits their coming. They will be "at home" to their friends there after Nov. 15.

With the exception of a brief period, during which he was in Southern France, Mr. Senior has resided in Plainfield since 1904. His home for a long time was on Union street but more recently has been at this step-son, Leopold Wolfe, of 1203 Martine avenue. Mr. Senior went to France in 1913 for the benefit of the first Mrs. Senior's health and though she improved for a time she passed away there in 1915. Mr. Senior returned to Plainfield in May, 1915. He has a wide acquaintance in this city and the best wishes and congratulations are extended by all who know him. His bride is of Spanish descent and has been residing in New York since the death of her parents.
