

SOCIETY

Gala Football Dance

Decorated to celebrate the first football game of the season, the St. Mary's-University of California game, this afternoon, the Women's Athletic Club will present a gay background for the brilliant and fun-bent throng that will gather for the dinner dance tonight.

For weeks past a large group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Sweet have been preparing for this gala event. Many parties are being held with out-of-towners guests of club members. There will be numerous cocktail parties both at private homes and at the club preceding the dinner dance.

Maj. and Mrs. John O. Hoskins have taken the Empire room for their party and will have as their guests Col. and Mrs. Waldo Potter, Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Thomas Monroe, Major and Mrs. Malcolm Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rolph of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Williams of San Francisco, Col. and Mrs. Otto Sandman of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Johnson of Stockton, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Rhorbacher of Stockton, Miss Olive Hoskins, Mrs. Roberta Jackson, Maj. John H. Cochran and Mr. Isaac Aylesworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Kaiser will preside at a table at which will be Dr. and Mrs. John Louis Lohse, Dr. and Mrs. C. FitzHoward Jarvis, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Alexander, Dr.

Newlyweds Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Helm have returned from their wedding trip to Southern California and are establishing their residence on Arch Street where they have leased a home. Mrs. Helm is the former Ann Elizabeth Eschen, popular Alameda girl whose marriage to Mr. Helm was a brilliant affair of September 16 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Niels Eschen.

The young bride is a graduate of the University of California, class of '35 and a member of Alpha Phi sorority. She is a member of the Spinsters and Dames and the Junior Hill branch of the Children's Hospital Association.

Mr. Helm is the son of Mrs. Antoinette Winter Helm-Correa of Oakland and the late Joseph Helm-Correa of Mexico City. He graduated from the University of California in 1931 where he affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity and was a member of the Skull and Keys society.

The bride's attendants at the wedding were Mrs. Richard Nourse of Concord, matron of honor, Mrs. Cameron Wolfe of Oakland, Mrs. Percival Seales of San Francisco and Miss Betty Oppenheimer.

Henry Helm was best man for his brother. Ushers were Joseph Hickingbotham, Charles L. Griffith and William Volkman, Jr.

* * * *

Will Come West for Wedding